NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N.C., April 6, '98.

The Merrymakers presented in a romantic manner at the opera house last nigh a very interesting drama entitled "The Heart of Cuba," to a large audience. The company is composed of some very good players. The singing and dancing were very catchy. The company will present "The Land of Gold" tonight, this is a very interesting comedy and will doubtless be greeted by a large house.

Mrs. M. H. Shiplet and Mrs. Frank Gurley are visitors at Thomasville today.

Mrs. Rev. J. B. Richardson boarded the train going north today.

John W. Moon is spending the day in Greensboro.

Miss Etta Dixie Kearns, one of Asheboro's most winsome young ladies who has been visiting Mrs. J. R. Flagg went to Worthville today where she will spend a short while before returning home.

Miss Lola May Hicks and Mr. John W. Moon will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride on Thomasville street tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. J. O. Alderman will officiate.

Mrs. Joyce and daughter, Carrie, will leave tomorrow for Charlotte, where they will spend a few days before returning to their home in Detroit, Mich.

A visit was made to the Graded school this morning and everything was found in a "booming" condition. They are all anticipating a grand time next Monday. The pic-nic will be at Benbow's old bone mill. Good order and discipline will be maintained. We are glad to note the school is moving along nicely and preparations are being made for the commencement which will occur May 1st to 4th. Prof. Geo. H. Crowell deserves much credit for his good work during this year.

DELIGHTFD WITH HIS VISIT.

Dr. McIver and Our City Schools. Lectures at the Normal.

President C. D. McIver, of the State Normal, Greensboro, who visited Winston's city schools yesterday, returned home today. He stated to a reporter that he was delighted with his visit; thas he found all the rooms looking bright and cheerful. He was especially pleased with the decorations, saying that he tuought more attention was paid to this feature here thad at any of the public schools in the state. The professor added that the decorations never failed to make a good impression on a visitor.

Dr. McIver informed the Sentinel that Mrs. S. T. Rorer, of the Philadelphia Cooking School, with spend a week with the State Normal and Industrial college, beginning tomorrow and will make daily lectures on cooking and domestic economy. Besides the students of the domestic science departments in the college, a large number of housekeepers of Greensboro will attend the lectures. The charges will be on $1.—Winston Sentinel.

Polo y Bernabe.

Many well informed people have been making inquiries concerning the odd manner in which the name of the new Spanish minister is written. On this point Mr. Robert D. Douglas gives us the following explanation:

Polo would be the Senor's name if he were a plain American, but is entirely too democratic to suit Spanish ideas. The custom among some of the higher classes of Spaniards is to write their mother's name and add to it the connective y, followed by the maiden name of the mother, and it is this custom which has caused many to wonder whether the gentleman's name is Mr. Polo or Mr. Bernabe.

Dr. R. F. Gray's Illness.

Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Gray left on the 10:30 train today for Baltimore, where the former goes to enter the Johns Hopkins hospital for treatment. He has been in bad health for several weeks. He went to Piedmont Springs several days ago, hoping to be benefitted, but he continued to grow worse and it was decided to return to Baltimore.

Dr. Gray has a host of friends here who hope that he may soon be restored to health. He is Winston's oldest native born citizen and there are none who are more highly esteemed—Sentinel.

Congress to Get the President's Message When Consul General Lee Gets Out of Havana.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 6—All Washington is in a state of the greatest excitement today. Unprecedented crowds throng the capitol eagerly listening and watching for every bit of news concerning the pending crisis. The officers are overwhelmed in the stampede. Everybody listening for the President's Cuban message.

Never were the halls of congress so crowded as they are today. Many women fainted.

PLANS OF ACTION.

Washington, April 6—A majority of both houses of congress will follow the president. Griggs says he understands that Consul-general Lee sails today. Rear Admiral Walker, retired, conferred with Secretary Long today regarding the situation. This fact revived the rumor that administration is seriously considering the matter of placing him in the supreme command of the entire naval forces in home waters.

The plan of action of the naval forces in the event of hostilities has been completed. A naval official says the flying squadron is to seize the Canaries which it will use as a base of operations to intercept Spanish merchantmen and attack Spanish seaports.

READY TO ARBITRATE.

Washington, April 6—Charge d' Affairs, Dubose, authorizes the statement today that Spain is ready to arbitrate the Maine disaster.

WILL SUPPORT M'KINLEY.

New York, April 6—Secretary of State Sherman sail today that he expected the unanimous support of McKinley's Cuban policy by both houses without regard to political affiliation.

WILL ACT TOGETHER.

Washington, Apr. 6—Senator Frye, of the foreign relations committee called on the president at noon today and talked with him about the message and how it should be handled in congress. The senate and house committees will act together and report a resolution in the identical form so that there may be no delay from differences between the two houses. Senator Frye has submitted his resolution embodying the recommendations of the president.

UNDER SEALED ORDERS.

Washington, April 6—The flying squadron was ordered today under sealed orders to sea.

CUBAN RESOLUTION DISCUSSED.

Washington, April 6—The Senate committee of foreign relations today resumed discussion of the Cuban resolution for the purpose of changing it to meet the recommendations of the president.

CABLEGRAM FROM LEE.

Washington, April 6—There is great excitement at the state department. A cablegram from General Lee says that one of the consuls in Cuba has been held up and cannot get away. His name is not known. The president has delayed his message on that account.

ANOTHER DISPATCH.

Washington, April 6—It is not probable that the president's message will go to congress until 3 p. m., after the close of the stock market.

THE NAVY HOSPITAL.

Washington, April 6—The navy department has decided on Port Royal, S. C. as a navy hospital. Ships injured in battle or needing attention south of the Virginia capes will be sent there.

COMSERVATIVE ELEMENT MEET.

Washington, April 6—The conservative element of the senate met this morning to consider what to do in case the resolution is reported calling for the recognition of Cuban independence. The general purpose is expressed as being opposed to the adoption of any resolution which is not confined to the support of the president's plan of intervention.

WILL ACT IMMEDIATELY.

Washington, April 6—Congress has decided that when the president's message is received that it shall be referred by both houses to the committees on foreign relations which are ready to act immediately.

If necessary General Lee's request for more time will be heeded. If Lee is safe out of Havana harbor tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the message will be reported to congress with recommendations to act immediately.

Tremendous pressure was brought to bear on both houses this morning to compel a postponement of final action until tomorrow.

WILL CAUCUS TONIGHT.

Washington, Apr[illegible]—The republicans of both houses [illegible] congress will meet in caucus ton[illegible] at 8 o'clock when action on the [illegible]sident's message will be decided [illegible]n. There are signs of the greate[illegible] activity at the war and navy depa[illegible]ents. All telegraph and telephone lines are kept busy. General Lee says he can leave Havana at noon.

MAY WAIT OVER SUNDAY.

Washinton, April 9—When the official announcement was brought from the White House to Chairman Davis that the lives of Americans who are unable to leave Havana today would be in danger if the message was read today, the senate agreed to wait over Sunday.

FORECAST OF PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Washington, April 6—The president's message is waiting for Lee and the Americans to get away safely from Cuba. They are not able to get transportation sufficient for the number now on the island. The following is a correct forecast of the most important provisions of the message: The tone is firm and vigorous. It recommends that the president be empowered to use armed land and naval forces to expel Spain from Cuba. The qualification, "at his discretion," was so strongly urged by one element of congress that it be not included in the message but that it will be left to congress to say whether authority shall be used by the president immediately or at his discretion. The message contains no recommendation for the recommendation of Cuban independenc. The president is unalterably opposed to such an action at present.

Refugees Going to Key West.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Key West, April 5—This is evidence of extreme excitement in the city today in anticipation of the crisis. Preparations are being made to receive Consul General Fitzhugh Lee. A room has been engaged for him at a hotel. A government steamship is coming from Havana loaded to the guards with refugees.

Gold Comes From Europe.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, April 6—The steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse arrived last night from Europe and brought with her five million, two hundred thousand dollars of gold.

North Carolina's Mills.

"Nearly all the cotton and woolen mills of North Carolina," according to the local correspondent of the Wool and Cotton Reporter, "are running on either double or extra time. Even the new plants put in operation during the present year, of which there are quite a number, have orders which necessitate extra time operations. Many of the latter are selling their products largely, some of them wholly, to the foreign trade, China and Japan being large customers. One of the Carolina mills shipped goods, representing three months' output directly to Japan the goods having been bought before being manufactured." This is pleasing news to be sure, but it has one unpleasant suggestion in it. "All the woolen mills" in North Carolina are running on double or extra time, and there is not one in South Carolina.—Charleston News and Courier.

CAPT. ASHE INJURED.

Thrown from His Seat on the Freight Last Night.

Last night Capt. S. A. Ashe, who was returning from Durham on the freight train, suffered an accident that came near resulting seriously. He was sitting in the upper part of the caboose. When the train reached Morrisville he was thrown forward on his seat by a sudden jerk and his head was thrust through the glass window. An artery was cut and the wound bled profusely.

Dr. A. T. Cotton was called in and accompanied Capt. Ashe to Raleigh. He was quite weak from loss of blood, but the injuries, though painful, are not serious. He had a narrow escape.—News and Observer.

THE WHITES RETIRED.

A South Carolina Shooting Bee Reported Through Atlanta.

Atlanta, April 5—A special to the Constitution from Columbia, S. C., says:

Near Newberry last night there was a battle between eight or ten whites and a score of negroes. A deputy sheriff, with a warrant for the arrest of Monroe Leitzsey, charging him with assaulting John F. Banks, a member of the legislature, swore in a posse and went to the man's house late at night.

Leitzsey called for help and twenty negroes from adjacent houses rushed out with shot guns, thinking it a lynching party. Firing on both sides was lively. Four whites and four negroes were wounded. The whites retired.

Coming to Greensboro.

Harold Holmes and the Merry Makers will begin a three night engagement at the academy tomorrow night. From a Greenville, S. C. paper we take the following:

[illegible]

The Merry Makers played to another appreciative audience last night and "The Heart of Cuba," which made such a decided hit Monday night, was presented again with even geeater success.

Tonight a vaudeville performance will be given. There will be plenty of fun, lots of songs, good dancing and a number of new and catchy specialties.

The roaring farce comedy, entitled "Two Little Vagrants," will be one of the features of this evening's program. Trick scenery, something new in this city, will be brought into requisition and the performance in every way promises to be full of snap and sparkle.

Holton's New Chief Clerk.

S. T. Neale received notification yesterday of his removal as chief clerk in District Attorney Holton's office. Col. James Martin has been appointed to the vacancy and will assume charge of the position at once. Mr. Neale was chief clerk under R. B. Glenn and held over to this time. His services as chief clerk have been efficient and were perfectly satisfactory to both—the ex-district attorney and the present one, but the ways of politics must prevail and Mr. Neale had to go because he is a democrat.

Col. Martin has resigned as U. S. commissioner.—Winston Journal.

EDITORS TO THE FRONT.

Ex-Confederate Wants to Command War Editors and Congressmen.

I was talking yesterday with a gentleman who won honor and promotion as a confederate soldier about the prospects of war. He is a strong anti-war man, and expresses his hostility to war vigorously and emphatically.

"I thought," he said, "that I would never go to war again. I am beyond the age and I had my share during the civil war, but I have about decided to enlist if we have a war with Spain upon one conditon."

I ventured to ask what his condition was.

"I think of writing to the Governor and offering to volunteer if he will let me command a company composed exclusively of those editors and Congressmen who are clamoring for war, and who will be satisfied with nothing but war. I want to take them into the very front ranks, and where the fighting is the hottest and let them get a taste of what they say they want."

"I have no heart to see the flower of the country killed and ruins and country come to give freedom to a lot of negroes who are not fit for self-government. Three southern states by law disfranchise the negroes, saying that they cannot govern, and yet we are asked to go to war to procure independence for men not a whit better qualified than those whose votes give us bad government here."—News and Observer.

More Accurate Service in Greensboro Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vanstory had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanstory sent the old lenses with an explanation to the occulist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following;

A REASON FOR WATCHFULNESS.

The approaching campaign in North Carolina will be in some respects a unique one. For the democratic party it will be a crucial one. It will be called upon to choose between principle and peanut politics. Its choice should be certain in advance, but is it? We believe that it will be found when the convention meets that the majority of democratic politicians will favor fusion. They will favor fusion because of its promise of immediate preferment. Let the rank and file of the party and the men who would fain preserve one political organization in the state having within it the promise of honest and capable government be on the lookout. Let them see to it that the party is not sold for a half mess of pottage. Fusion with the populist party on the pretended grounds of advocacy of the same principles is a delusion and a snare. One wing of the populist party is growing more and more radical in its tendencies and its logical goal is out and out socialism. The other wing of the populist party will weary bye and bye of association with it and will return to the democratic party if the latter stands firmly upon those principles, at once liberal and conservative, that has made its control of public affairs so beneficent in the past. If on the other hand the democratic party descends to undignified dickering and unholy bargaining with the populist party under present conditions it at once lowers itself to the level of the present regime.

It is all very well to talk about a white man's government, but the only way that we can have decent government is through the control of one political party. For the sake of this silly battle cry therefore let there be no sacrifice of the future prospects of the party and no compromise of its present position. The democratic party carries on its shoulders the responsibility for the future of the state. Let that not be forgotten.

Once more the papers are full of reports that the Pope will mediate between Spain and the United States. The reports come from too authoritative sources to allow of their being wholly groundless. Undoubtedly the Vatican would seize this opportunity as it is always ready to seize upon every opportunity, to put itself forward if assured in advance that it will not meet with a rebuff. The Vatican has never reeked with modesty. It never lets slip an opportunity of making a show of possessing potency in temporal affairs. Mr. McKinley's attitude is of course apologetic. He informs His Holiness with a profound salaam that among his narrow-minded countrymen there is a strange and foolish prejudice against submitting their affairs to the sacerdotal arbitrament of His Holiness. MR. McKinley might save time by apologizing for the existence of the American nation and for his position as president of it. In the latter apology the nation would certainly join with wholesouled heartiness. The American people now need no help to see the right. It will not be an easy matter to blind them to the wrong.

Pennsylvania is much wrought up at present over an investigation of attempted bribery. If it will keep a sharp eye on the agents of Mr. Wanamaker's reform campaign it may be able to find a few cases carried to completion.

Dr. Righteous Altogether Cobb, with the usual modesty and infallible good taste of all his kind, takes up a column in the Progressive Farmer in proving that he is the only efficient librarian the state has ever had.

The fact that the senatorial investigating committee of Ohio found Mr. Hanna guilty of bribery suggests that the racket around Washington must have sadly distracted his attention.

Having been bothered by hay thieves, a Coddington county, S. D., farmer lay in wait for them one night. One of his neighbors came along and loaded a wagon with the watcher's hay and started to drive away. The owner of the hay crept up behind the wagon and fired the hay in several places. The thief had just time to get off the hay cut his horses loose to escape the flames. The hay and wagon were destroyed.

That the name of the rose certainly would not effect its fragrance in Givensville, Idaho, has been demonstratrated by the experience of the three Misses Mush, who went there from Centerville, Ia., to teach school. The first Miss Mush was married at the end of her first term, and her sister, who took her place, married in the middle of the following term. The third sister finished out this term and then she, too, was joined in the holy bonds, and the strong past tense of mush in Givensville now is much.

THE WILY WIZZARD.

Butler Was Sat Down on by the Populist Committee.

The populist committee met in Raleigh last night to name the day for the state convention. From the Morning Post's report of the meeting we take the following:

First of all the populist state executive committee failed to adopt a set of resolutions at its meeting last night. This fact should be especially chronicled, because it is the first instance on record where a populist gathering failed to resolve. This fact should be borne in mind.

Secondly, the committee sat down upon Senator Butler squarely and fairly. The erstwhile leader of the forces of populism wanted to have the populist state convention called to meet here May 25th, the time of the meeting of the democratic convention. This the committee refused to do by the decisive vote of 16 to 4. The date of the convention was set for Tuesday, May 17th.

Thirdly, a motion by Senator Butler's right bower, J. B. Lloyd, to endorse the address of the national chairman favoring a fusion of the silver forces on the money question, not only failed to pass but failed to receive a second.

And lastly, Governor Russell's gentle hint that the committee endorse his position in the railway fight and persecution failed even to receive consideration.

These are some of the results of the populist committee, which was in session until after 1 o'clock this morning.

After recording incidents connected with the selection of the date for the convention the Post further says:

Senator Butler, at the suggestion of J. B. Lloyd, was then invited to enter the meeting. Senator Butler beseeched the committee to change the date of the call from the 17th to the 25th. He stated that it was of vital importance that the convention meet here the time of the democratic convention in order that propositions looking to fusion might be submitted.

The committee refused to recede from its selection of the date of the 17th. It was stated that the convention could then decide whether or not it would submit any proposal looking towards fusion with the democrats.

Senator Butler came out of the committee meeting smiling this morning. "Oh, we had a harmonious meeting," the wily Senator remarked. "We didn't do anything but set the date for the state convention."

Otho Wilson and others considered the action of the committee a severe rebuke to Butler.

One of Butler's confidential friends said this morning, after the meeting: "Butler expected the committee to be hostile to him. In fact, he had every reason to believe that he would receive worse treatment than he has, and I can assure you that he is satisfied with the outcome. It is only a committee meeting. These fellows won't be knee high in the convention. Then you will see how and who Butler is. Just wait."

Sixteen Million in Claims.

Washington, D. C. April 5—Claims against Spain aggregating $16,000,000 for injury and loss incident to the war in Cuba have been filed with the State Department by the citizens of the United States residing in that country. They cover claims for personal injury, imprisonment, loss of stock, burning of sugar plantations, etc.

All are properly indexed at the State Department, and then sent to Minister Woodford, at Madrid, where they are presented to the Spanish Government for adjudication.

There has been a perceptible falling off of these claims, and during the last few weeks none whatever have been presented.

Notice.

Thursday, April 7th, 8 p. m., is the regular monthly meeting of the G. S. E. Co. No. 1. As the business is important all members are urged to be present.

CHAIRMAN MANLY HOPEFUL.

The Time Has Come When All Silver Men Can Get Together.

Hon. Clement Manly, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, was here yesterday, arguing some cases before the Supreme court.

"The democratic party is in splendid condition," he said just before taking the train for home. "There is nothing, unless it be our own folly, that can defeat us. All the silver forces of the state can now come together on terms fair and honorable to all sides if they will do so.

"There will be a new chairman. I think it best for the party. Besides, I have given as much of my time as I think ought to be required of me now. It ought to be a Raleigh man, if we can get one. He can give his time without so much sacrifice of private business. Everything points to democratic victory next fall."—News-Observer.

Berlin was the scene of a collision between a horse car and a balloon recently. A captive military balloon broke loose during a squall, and drove across the Tempell of field, dragging with it the soldiers who were holding it. On reaching the street, though its speed was checked by its carrying away some telegraph wires, it hit a horse car violently enough to upset it with its passengers. Two of the soldiers who held on were badly hurt.

A TEXAS ELECTION.

The Reds and Blues Shed Blood in a Characteristic Pistol War.

Brownsville, Texas, April 5—The city election here today resulted in mubh blood-shed as a result of the contest between the two factions known as the Reds and Blues. In the fight on the main street of the town two men were killed and two were wounded. Shortly after this a mob broke into the jail where was confined the man who had done the worst work of the day and killed him. They dragged his body out into the street and were about to burn it when wise counsel prevailed and it was taken to an undertakers.

The Red ticket, with Eben Cobb at its head for mayor, was defeated. Jno. Carson, who has first placed on the ticket supported by the Blues was victorious.

When the result was made known early this morning the Reds at once set up a cry of fraud. Counter charges were made by their opponents and the affair soon culminated in the drawing of fire arms.

Carter Gullen, a Blue, the editor of a paper here, received the first wound. Rushing out in the street he jumped on a horse and drew his pistol. Jailor Cobb, who was mounted at the time and saw the threatening aspect of things, attempted to arrest Guillon but the latter was quick with his pistol and at the first shot fatally wounded the jailor. Constable Cobb, who rushed to his brother's aid, was met by a bullet from Guillon's revolver which ended his life. Lorenzo Guillen, the son of the editor, hearing the shooting, rushed out of the office of the little newspaper and apparently not knowing what he was doing he blew the brains out of the head of the dead constable as he lay on the side walk. Guillen, it was learned was first shot by a man named Charles. He was soon arrested and together with the boy Lorenzo Guillen, was jailed. Carlos Guillen then gave himself up. Hardly fifteen minutes had passed before a mob of three hundred men formed and marched to the jail. The door of the frail structure was soon battered down and in just two minutes Guillen was dead—his body perforated by bullets. Not satisfied with their work the enraged citizens dragged the body out into the street and were about to burn it when wiser counsel prevailed and the undertaker was permitted to take charge of it.

During the exeitement the boy excaped. The town at once quieted down and no further trouble is expected. The Cobb's were brothers of the Red candidate for marshal. They will be buried tomorrow.

WAR BALLOON THAT'S COMING.

To Be Used as a Watch Tower and Valuable on the Plains.

The military authorities at Fort Wadsworth are waiting with interest the arrival of the big signal balloon from Fort Logan, which left Denver yesterday by freight. It has been used there for signalling and observation with great success. The balloon is not intended for free flights, but is held at anchor by long cables and used as a post of observation and a point from which to signal. In a flat country its isolated position gives it a great range for both purposes.

With the ballon comes the plant for generating gas and the balloon wagon which is used to transport it. Sergeant Ivy Baldwin of Fort Logan, an expert balloonist, will come on and look after the management of the balloon. A frame will be put up at Fort Wadsworth for the large bag to rest on while being filled with gas. For several years experiments in this aerial line have been made on the Western plains by the military authorities, but this balloon in case of war, will be the first to be used in this country in real service.—New York Sun.

ACCIDENTAL KILLING.

Clay Shaw Fatally Shot by Simon Lee, His Cousin.

Another death was added yesterday to the list of those who were killed by "unloaded" guns.

In the house of Andrew Lee, (col.) over in Jonesboro, on East Market street, opposite the store of W. E. Holly, yesterday afternoon about half past five o'clock Clay Shaw, the little 7-year-old son of Brown Shaw, (col.,) was fatally shot by Simon Lee, his cousin. The gun was a single barrelled breech loading shot gun, and was loaded with bird shot. The story as told by Simon Lee, the one who did the shooting, is as follows:

"Me and Clay was playing around in the room here with the other boys. A big boy brought in his gun and shells and put 'em on the bed. Presently all of the boys left except me and Clay. Clay was sitting in a chair and the gun was cocked and pointing right at him. The other boys had been frolicking with gun and I didn't know it was loaded or that there was any harm in it and just for fun I pulled the trigger. I was most scared to death when the gun went off. Clay was my cousin and I wouldn't have shot him for anything. Me and he always played together."

The whole load of bird shot entered his head on the right side just above his ear and passed diagonally backward. A part of the load passed entirely through his head and came out on left side behind, leaving holes through which a portion of his brain oozed.

There was no hope of the boy's life and everything was done to make him easy. Drs. Turner and Brooks trephined him in order to remove the blood clots and relieve the pressure on his brain.

The little fellow gave up the struggle last night about 10 o'clock. His life was insured on the industral plan for $35. He will be buried this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A Cordial Welcome.

EDITORIAL.

This is a period of great uncertainty.

Take the matter of war with Spain, concerning which there is so much talk.

In the first place, it is uncertain as to whether we shall have war.

And if we do it is uncertain how long it will last, or how much damage will be done—or anything—

Except—no one seems to think it uncertain that we shall finally lick 'em.

That's all.

—o—

Then take the weather.

No one knows what will be needed three days hence—coal vases or refrigerators.

It will not be long before it will be certain that you need refrigerators, ice cream freezers, lawn mowers, garden tools—yes, and hose and lawn sprinklers.

Are you thinking of buying a new wheel this season? If so, you will not make a mistake if you select a Crawford or a Tribune.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Wheels in your head

could not be expected to contribute to your pleasure, but a wheel in the right place, if of the right kind, will afford more pleasure than any other article of similar cost. Be sure that you get the right kind of a wheel. The Crawford is the right kind.

Have you seen the Tribune?

A strictly high grade wheel, If you buy it you won't be sorry.

An economical housekeeper should always buy the best refrigerator that is made, for it will save enough in food in a season to pay for itself. Our National refrigerator is economical in consuming ice, and neither flesh, fish, fowl, or anything in the way of eatables will spoil in it if you keep a fair amount of ice in it.
